

Reading medieval sources

Penitential Books from the Middle Ages

Edited by Rob Meens and Elaine Pereira Farrell

Table of Contents

Preface

Chapter 1: General introduction (Rob Meens)

Part One: Development of the genre

Chapter 2: Insular Origins (Roy Flechner)

Chapter 3: Penitentials in the Frankish world (Ludger Körntgen)

Chapter 4: Penitentials in Spain, Italy and Ottonian Germany (Adriaan Gaastra)

Chapter 5: Confessional manuals of a later period (Atria Larsson)

Part Two: Contexts

Chapter 6: The language of penance (Katy Cubitt)

Chapter 7: Manuscripts (Carine van Rhijn)

Chapter 8: Penitential books and legal traditions (Greta Austin)

Chapter 9: The liturgy of penance (Sarah Hamilton)

Part Three: Themes

Chapter 10: Violence (Warren Brown)

Chapter 11: Beliefs and religious practice (Rob Meens)

Chapter 12: Sexuality and gender (Elaine Pereira Farrel)

Chapter 13: The body (Zubin Mistry)

Part Four: Samples

1. Translation of part of the P. Ambrosianum (by Meredith Cutrer)
2. Translation of the P. Oxoniense II (by Rob Meens)
3. Translation of part of the Excarpus Cummeani (by Elaine Pereira Farrell)
4. Translation of part of the P. Capitula Iudiciorum (by Teun van Dijk)
5. Translation of part of Bartholomew of Exeter (by Mark Meens)

Bibliography

List of contributors